

BLOOD CAMPAIGN TO END TODAY

USF Coach Likes New Cage Plan

By WALT ROESSING

"I am in favor of an independent basketball conference," University of San Francisco Coach Phil Woolpert told the Spartan Daily Wednesday night before the start of the Spartans casaba contest.

The likeable Bay city mentor would like to see a league composed of at least six, and possibly eight teams. He suggested that such a conference be composed of USF, San Jose State, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, San Francisco State, College of Pacific, Nevada and Loyola.

He doesn't feel that inclusion of the latter two schools in a league would add too much to travel expenses of all the colleges involved. "An expanded league with six or eight teams would get more recognition," he said.

Coach Woolpert thinks the basketball conference would do two things.

First, he feels that it would make the necessity for bringing in top flight intercollegiate squads a rarity and would therefore reduce local athletic expenses.

Second, he believes an independent race "would make for a keener rivalry among the independents."

The Dons coach also mentioned that an intense rivalry among the local independents might bring back the basketball fans to the local scene. There has been a severe drop at the gate this season as Bay Area spectators have not been patronizing the local court pavilions.

"There is definitely a possibility" that an independent cage circuit could be formed for the 1952-53 season but there are "a lot of details that must be worked out," Woolpert commented.

"Immediate action must be taken and a decision must be made before June if the league is to operate next season."

He stated that the conference still is in the "informal talk" stage and the USF Board of Athletic Control hasn't taken action on any official proposal.

McPherson Likes Cage Loop Plan

Varsity Basketball Coach Walt McPherson said yesterday that he would prefer an independent basketball conference of at least six teams.

"I think a conference consisting of San Jose State, Santa Clara, USF, St. Mary's, College of Pacific, and San Francisco State would be most satisfactory. If such a conference were organized, I believe it not only would give the players more enthusiasm, but also there would be an increase in attendance."

New Placement Office To Hold Open House This Afternoon

The Placement office, Room 100, will hold open house this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, for faculty and guests, to celebrate the merging of the three placement services into one office.

Formerly, the teacher placement service and the business and technical service were in Room 108, and both were under the direction of Miss Doris Robinson, now director of teacher placement. Dr. Vernon A. Ouellette is now the director of business and technical placement.

Evans Expects 1250 Donations

A concentrated three-week blood drive on the campus will come to a conclusion at 4 o'clock this afternoon when the last students give to the Red Cross Mobile Unit in the Student Union.

Final results of actual blood donations will be announced at tonight's intermission of the Spartan-Idaho boxing matches in the Men's gymnasium.

Approximately 460 students are expected to donate blood today to "Help Our Boys in Korea," according to Tom Evans, campaign chairman. He has estimated that the final result will total in the neighborhood of 1250 pints of blood.

Numerous other students also will be donating blood today at the Santa Clara Valley Blood Center at 440 N. First street, which will count towards the final campus total, Evans related.

Students who will want to donate blood should contact one of the members in the campus headquarters in the Student Union immediately, he said.

Pledges were giving blood from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Union headquarters yesterday. Approximately 501 had signed cards assuring drive officials that they would donate a pint of fluid apiece. Yesterday was the first day of the drive in which students gave on campus.

12:45 p.m.—Larry Elan, Mary Crawford, Carol Copey, Marion Martin, Charles Flaherty, Letitia Anne Kevin, Ken VanHagen, Patricia Borrelli, Audrey Gilpin, Alice Beshare, Carolyn Alpolla, Theresa Rao, Paul Aden Rohrer, Howard Rosenthal, Charles Rause, Susan Moore, John Belden, Ann Wilcox, Lon Polk, Fred Grassle, Menlo Kawakami, Mickie Delahousie.

1:00 p.m.—Ethel Peterson, Thomas Cuffe, Lorraine Taler, Pat Pope, Sumi Kanaya, Margarita Disterlo, Ralph Morocco, Pat Percy, Arlene Gentry, Joyce Steiner, W. F. AWS To Hold Girl-Ask-Boy Dance Tonight

The third annual AWS girl-ask-boy "Heart's Delight" dance will be held tonight from 9:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Scottish Rite temple. Blue bow knots, love birds, and red hearts will be the featured decorations at the St. Valentine dance.

Coronation ceremonies will be held for the winner of the "Jack of Hearts" contest. Competing for the title are Doc Weaver, Lud Spolyar, Dick Brady, John Aitken, George Clark, Tom Brown, and Ken Scannel.

Dance bids for the dressy-sport affair are on sale at the Library arch. Carol Larson, chairman of the dance, encouraged all those who will be going to the SJS-University of Idaho boxing matches to attend the "Heart's Delight" dance following the bouts.

Debate To End On Tuesday

Final round of the second annual All-College Open Debate tournament will be held Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. Chairman John Mix announced yesterday.

Yesterday, the independent team of Bill Tyler and "Rocky" Rhoades took the lead in the debate when Stu McCulloch and Quentin Smith of SAE forfeited their scheduled meet, said Mix.

Still in the competition is the Sigma Pi team of Del Bowles and Hugh Roberts. Their meet Tuesday with the SAE men will decide whether the Tyler-Rhoades team will win uncontested.

UP ROUNDUP

American Wins Olympic Event

Oslo, Norway — Mrs. Andrea Mead Lawrence of Rutland, Vt., won the women's giant slalom ski race yesterday in the opening competition of the 1952 winter Olympics.

The 19-year-old Mrs. Lawrence sped down the shortened 1,000 meter Norefjell course in 2 minutes, 6.8 seconds to become the second United States woman ever to win an Olympic ski medal.

To Pool Jet Reserves
Washington, D.C.—The United States, Canada and Britain have pooled their resources to build and fly several hundred F-86 Sabrejet planes to help strengthen Western Europe's air defenses.

THIS IS THE FIRST LAP of a race to save an American's life. The Red Cross worker pictured above is loading whole blood into a refrigerated truck.

It will be rushed to a blood bank and later flown to Korea. Today is the last opportunity Spartans will have to enter this most important of all races.

First IIR Wage Clinic To Start Here Monday

Approximately 1000 business and labor leaders of Santa Clara and surrounding counties will be on campus Monday to take part in the Institute of Industrial Relations Wage Clinic being held in cooperation with the regional wage stabilization board.

The clinic is the first of its type to be held on the West coast. Dr. Edward P. Shaw, director of the college IIR, said that many of the top officials of the regional wage board will be present to orient labor and business groups on the problems and purposes of the wage program.

The following is the program for Monday:

Morning session—9:30-12:30 — Agricultural Wage Stabilization, Morris Dailey auditorium. Dr. Paul Prasow, chief of the agricultural wage division, and Jerome Smith, chief of the enforcement division. Salary Stabilization, Little Theater. James R. Hemingway, regional counsel for salary stabilization, and John Dille, regional director of the wage and hour division for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Afternoon session: 1:30-5:30 — General Wage Stabilization, Morris Dailey auditorium. Dr. T. W. Mac-

Quarrie, Dr. Arthur M. Ross, chairman of the regional wage stabilization board; Mr. Dille, Ernest H. Norback, regional counsel for the WSB; Benjamin Law, chief of the rulings and opinions branch for the WSB; Irving Bernstein, director of the case analysis division for the WSB; and Harold Cook, wage and hour administration officer for the WSB.

Evening session: 7:30 to close—All groups meet in auditorium for recap of day's discussion and for general question and answer session.

Today's Weather

Albert P. Garbunkle, sole producer of Lydiad Pinkfat's Okra-Root Suntan Oil, Wombat Discourager and Soothing Syrup, smiled as he announced the grand opening of his multi-million rupee Alviso beach resort, Stagnation-by-the-Slough.

"It'll make a ghost-town of Santa Cruz and press the Riviera as the Mecca of the scorched-skin set. Stand to make a billion peddling L.P.O.R.S.O.W.D. and S.S. alone."

College Mails 2936 'B' Cards

An epidemic of the dreaded "blue valentines" is sweeping the campus.

The Registrar's office has sent out a total of 2936 small squares of blue cardboard, with remarks apropos of the season attached to 2097 students. If you didn't get one yesterday you may today.

Carpenters Finish; Glass Work Next

Today will conclude the work of the three-man college Chapel carpentry crew, excepting their planned return next week to install door locks, according to Fred Zeissler, job foreman.

Glass work on the east and west sides of the Chapel will be sub-contracted by the present construction firm, Oscar Meyers and company. Plates on the front and back will be arranged by the college, according to Byron Thompson, college business manager.

A Means of Survival

The major California independents are looking for a means of survival in the mad confusion of high-cost, amateur sports. Now they are striving towards two objectives—a basketball conference and a football league.

The first objective is so sound that it may well be realized in the formation of a basketball circuit to begin in the 1952-53 season. The second objective also is sound, but prospects for its success are slimmer.

The idea of organizing a basketball conference among San Jose State, Santa Clara, USF, St. Mary's, College of Pacific, San Francisco State, and perhaps Loyola and Nevada appears to be the most attainable and possible at this time. The football issue is too complicated to be ironed out immediately, but a meeting to discuss this basketball conference could and should be called immediately.

The independents need a cage conference. The benefits of joining together are manifest. A conference would help revive a keen regional rivalry, and attendance, a stumbling point of recent, would certainly pick up.

The conference idea is nothing new. It worked back in the days of the Northern California Intercollegiate Basketball league, which lasted three years, 1936 through 1939. There were five conference teams then, San Jose State, Santa Clara, St. Mary's, College of Pacific, and USF. Fans turned out in flocks and the teams shared the headlines with the bigger schools of the Pacific Coast conference. True, the caliber wasn't "major," but still the competition was even, with all the schools on the same level.

A return to something like the NCIBC would be a welcome transference into the waning independent blood stream.

The important thing is that the conference is not only practical, but also definitely possible.—R.H.

Communism Issue

Dear Thrust & Parry and Spartan Daily Editor:

In your editorial of Wednesday, Feb. 13, you stated, and I quote, "we will continue to bring forth those issues we consider paramount and will continue to comment freely on matters which we think affect the welfare of the students."

Do you not consider the Communist Festival in Berlin of great interest to the students? Does the "Festival" not have an effect upon the welfare of the students? I feel that it does concern all of us.

Are you blind to the fact that thousands of boys our age, college age, have lost their lives fighting Communism? Perhaps if those boys who have died, and the rest of us who may die fighting the Communists, had had a better knowledge of what Communism is, and what it can do to people, the sad state of world affairs could have been averted by coping with Communism in its infancy.

You also state in your editorial that, "the purpose of any newspaper is to mirror to the best of its ability, the life of its community."

If we are to read of community life let's leave world affairs alone. If we are going to consider world affairs in our BRAVE AND CRUSADING campus newspaper, then let us not be afraid to print the activities of the Communist party, of which the "Communist Youth Festival" was one.

We want the story from the Daily Californian printed in this journal of Americanism.

Sincerely,
Gordon Seese, ASB 4307
Owen O. Hall, ASB 5772

Thrust and Parry

An Editor's Job

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Whenever an editor states in his newspaper that he will not print certain information or articles, fiery 20th Century Voltaires immediately take the call to arms and bombard his office with free verse. These defenders of free speech produce their literature in the name of democracy. And that being so, at least their intentions are good although their theories on journalism are nothing more than unique.

Both Mr. Webb and Mr. Cone have overlooked one fact: An editor is an editor; only that and nothing more. His first and main responsibility is to edit the news which runs in his newspaper.

His responsibility is not that of "giving us the truth, the facts (even if propaganda) along with your opinions about it." Propaganda, particularly Communist propaganda, is seldom identical with truth and facts.

Mr. Webb, you believe the author of the Cal article is a "conscientious citizen who is being misrepresented by the Spartan Daily." You go on to say that the Spartan Daily editor has jumped to conclusions. But I notice that you have defended the author of the article loudly, blindly and with little information about the person.

I am assuming nothing about the person who wrote that article, and I am little interested. But of the "facts" about which you are so vitally concerned, Mr. Cone, there are or were students who definitely believed themselves to be Communists at least at UCLA. And the status of the Daily Bruin is comparable to that of the Daily Cal.

During the 1949-50 school year while attending UCLA, I was a reporter for the Daily Bruin, at that time accused of being pro-Communist. Time after time I was shocked to hear certain students criticize the American way of life and maintain that revolution in this country was inevitable and that someday Communism would be world wide.

I say this is true because I heard the arguments myself. Once two students admitted during a heated argument that they were members of the Communist party. Other students of this same group were mentioned in a Saturday Evening Post article entitled, "UCLA's Red Cell," which ran a year ago last fall.

I am not trying to imply that there are Communist students at Cal now. At the same time, Mr. Webb, I am not so sure there aren't and that some of them may be contributors to the Daily Cal, unbeknown to the editors of the same paper.

If anyone desires to read Communist propaganda, he can easily subscribe to the Daily Worker.

Coeds Say This Is The Way We, You Can Go To School

By LELAND JOACHIM

"A man offering Cal scholarships came to our high school. I didn't want one. I asked about San Jose."

There was real pride in her voice as Mary Catherine Gillaspay, winner of the Class of 1951 scholarship, told of how she had "always wanted to come to State." She is a freshman education major.

The award was but one of the new loan funds and scholarships which were made available since the May, 1951, bulletin was published. E. W. Clements, personnel counselor, said recently.

All but one of the scholarships were awarded last quarter. Five of the six recipients now are in attendance. Four loans were made last quarter from the Robert L. Sharp fund, one of the two new loan funds, according to G. L. Singewald, housing manager.

Largest of the 1951-52 scholarships went to Carole Simmons, sophomore education major, largely because of high school scholarship and activity and membership in the order of Job's Daughters.

"My adviser thought I should try for the award," Miss Simmons said. "I wouldn't have been able to go to college without it."

The $500 gift was made by the Grand Guardian Council of California, International Order of Job's Daughters.

The Class of 1951 scholarship, which replaced the Alumni Association awards, was enriched recently by $500 of surplus class funds turned over by M. C. Lanyon, class adviser, Joe Juliano, alumni director, said. Mr. Juliano expressed hope that one day all senior classes would consider an alumni scholarship.

The award will be known as the Class of 1951 scholarship until present funds are exhausted, Mr. Juliano explained. If a succeeding class then comes through with funds for continuation of the award, it will be named after it.

"Instead of erecting statues on the campus, why not present a living memorial to the foresight of those who have a responsibility for the expenditure of surplus funds?" he said.

Mary Rogers, pre-nursing student, now is making use of the $250 she received from the Women's club of Walnut Creek, while Mildred Hawkins, senior education major, exhibited last fall the scholarship, character, and need requisite to win the $150 offered by the Palo Alto Fund of Negro History.

The files of Mr. Singewald listed John M. Rodrigues as the 1951-52 winner of the scholarship given by the State Council of Cabrillo Civic clubs. They revealed Joyce Brizard as the holder of the award offered by the Tulare County Federation of Women's clubs, a $200 scholarship to worthy pre-nursing students.

The Business and Professional Women's club of Salinas offers a $50 scholarship to a high school or Hartnell college transfer.

The Robert L. Sharp fund and the Mary Irwin Gates Foundation are two new sources of small loans for students, Mr. Clements said.

Applications for the Sharp loan may be made in the Business office through Mr. Singewald, manager of the College Service Funds committee. This fund was set up last July at the request of Sharp by his widow, Virginia W. Sharp, and his son, Robert L. Sharp, Jr. Mrs. Sharp said she favored applicants "who would need small amounts for emergencies."

The original grant was $1071.28, but $10 was added later by interested friends, and on Oct. 16, 1951, Mrs. Sharp added $5 as a birthday memorial for her husband.

Loans from the Sharp fund to freshman and transfer students were limited by the college committee to $50 to be paid before the end of the current year. These loans and others to be made to

'Don't Wait, Give Now!' Coed Pleas for Blood

Betty Dwyer, freshman English major, presented the following speech to her Public Speaking class concerning the present need for blood donations:

Last night I received a letter from a boy in Korea. He had been wounded and had received blood from the Red Cross.

Part of his letter read as follows: "Dear Betty: You always said you were going to give blood. Maybe the blood I received was yours. Nothing you or anyone else could have given me would have been more appreciated. Giving me blood was like giving me life."

I felt ashamed when I read the letter for the blood he received was not mine. It could not have been—I had not given any blood.

His words "Giving me blood was like giving me life" made an indelible impression on my mind. We are as powerful as the doctor who gives the soldier the transfusion because without our blood the doctor can do nothing. From a dying body we can create a man who may live for 40 years or more.

I read of a woman who never had found time to donate blood. One day she received a telegram which said her son had been killed in action.

When his buddy visited her, he told her that the son had died from loss of blood. Upon hearing this, the woman began to weep and said, "I didn't want to give seniors were subjected to a small service charge.

Loans made from the Gates fund were limited to the amount needed for a single quarter, but additional loans may be secured in ensuing quarters. Mr. Clements, as chairman of the fund committee, receives all applications for loans from this source. He then recommends and certifies eligible students to the foundation trustees in Redwood City.

thirty minutes of my time; instead I gave the life-time of my son."

Each of us has someone in Korea. He might be a fiance, relative, buddy or a fellow American. One of these days he might need blood. Make sure he has it!

I'm thankful that my friend lived as I would not want his death on my conscience. Don't be like the cat who sat on all the stove lids to see if all of them were hot. Don't wait until your friend or fiance dies from lack of blood to give your blood.

Engineering Internships Scheduled For Summer

The newly-proposed "internship" program for engineering majors probably will begin on a limited scale sometime this summer, said Dr. Ralph J. Smith, head of the Engineering department.

Under the plan, engineering students would alternate college instruction with actual experience in nearby industries. The plan was proposed Tuesday at a meeting of the engineering survey committee and representatives of local industry.

The advantages of such a program would be three-fold, Dr. Smith stated. "First, working in a plant would help confirm the student's decision to go into the engineering profession. Secondly, a graduate of such a program would be more valuable to his employers because of the practical experience behind him. Finally, during his internship period the student would see the actual application of principles he has been taught in class."

Dr. Smith also pointed out two disadvantages of the proposed program. It would require the full-time services of at least one faculty member to coordinate and supervise a group of 50 to 100 students working as many as 20 different firms scattered about the Bay area.

General Electric corporation, Westinghouse corporation, Food Machinery corporation, the Association of General Contractors and the State Division of Highways have offered their cooperation in the limited program this summer.

Draft Exams Slated Apr. 24, Says Service

Selective Service College Qualification tests will be administered Apr. 24, the Educational Testing service announced recently.

Eligible students should file applications at once, the service said. An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any Selective Service local board.

Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, Mar. 10. "Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage," the announcement stressed.

Eligible students are those who have not previously taken the examination, according to the local Selective Service office.

Faculty Club Poll

Phi Beta Kappa faculty club's mailed-ballot poll, regarding changes in the organization's constitution and by-laws, reaches a deadline today, according to Dr. Harrison Heath, professor of psychology and secretary of the club.

The change requires an affirmative vote of two thirds of the club's 32 members, Dr. Heath said. He reported that only nine ballots have been received so far.

Summer Camps Inquire For Student Counselors

Summer camp counseling jobs are beginning to flood the Placement office now, according to Dr. Vernon A. Ouellette, placement officer.

Dr. Ouellette said that he can place almost any student in a summer job now. Counselors are needed for private camps and Girl Scout camps all over the United States.

Veterans' wives who want to put their husbands through school should contact the Placement office about selling Frutex, a new plastic material. These jobs consist of putting on style shows in people's homes to demonstrate the Frutex line, which includes curtains, bedspreads, tablecloths, aprons, baby needs and other household materials.

A male stenographer, who knows shorthand and types well, can obtain a job paying $4500 a year with a Stanford university-sponsored research program in Alaska. This job offers $300 a month for the first three months, $400 after that, plus free room and board and transportation.

Sky Meadow, the Palo Alto girl scout camp, needs young women to work as camp counselors for the 1952 summer session, June 26 to Aug. 15.

Counselors who are skilled in crafts, dramatics, nature study, and singing and a swimming instructor and graduate nurse are needed.

Applicants should contact the Palo Alto girl scout camp com-

Bentel To Attend Press Meetings

Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of the Journalism department, will attend the meetings of the California Newspaper Advertising Managers' association in San Francisco Friday evening, and the Newspaper Institute in Richmond on Saturday to speak on Freedom of the Press.

The Newspaper Institute is a group of working newspapermen in the east Bay area, Dr. Bentel said.

DSP's To Choose Dream Girl at Carnation Ball

Delta Sigma Phi's Dream Girl will be chosen tomorrow night at the fraternity's third annual Carnation Ball. The formal dinner-dance will be held at Brookdale Lodge at 7:30 p.m.

The selection of the Dream Girl will climax the evening's activities.

AOPi's Elect New Officers

Marilyn Blue, junior merchandising major, was installed as president of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority at a formal candlelight ceremony recently held at the chapter house.

Diane Altimus is the vice-president; Nan Wilson, recording secretary; La Rea Wells, corresponding secretary; Arvila Brooks, treasurer; Joan Aubrey, scholarship chairman; Jeanne Welke, door chairman; Jackie Bessiere, historian; and Janet Fraser, study plan chairman.

Officers were elected for the new winter pledge class at the meeting. They are: Gladys Hansen, president; Mary Clair O'Neill, vice president; Donna Zschokke, secretary-treasurer; Mollye Smith, historian; Shirley Minardi, song leader; Shirley Dublin, yard chairman; Isabel Lenger, house chairman; Frances Lippolis, activities; Carol Lage, publicity; Lois Martini, test chairman; Nancy McDaniel and Eleanor Davajan, charm and courtesy co-chairmen; and Dorothy Maher, projects chairman.

A scholarship dinner is planned for Monday night at the house.

Kappa Phi's Honor Dads at Banquet

Members of Kappa Phi, Methodist women's sorority, honored their "favorite valentines" at the annual Dad-Daughter banquet held Saturday at the First Methodist church.

Thirty-two members with their dads, real and adopted for the evening, were present.

Speaker for the evening was Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie. Also on the program were the reading of an original poem, "Valentine for Dads," written by Carol Herzberg, two violin solos by Mary Ruth Morse, accompanied by Helen Kimzey, and a medley of songs featuring Donna Harkleroad and Cathy Kruzen and their ukeleles.

Banquet arrangements were made by Alice Westfall and Kathy Jones, assisted by patronesses, Mesdames Clyde Tompkins, Belle Moore and Lloyd Saxon.

SAE-GPB To Hold Joint Party Monday

"Gay Parisian" will be the theme of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and Gamma Phi Beta sorority joint party to be held Monday evening at the home of Ralph Clints, SAE alumnus.

The Clints' home will be transformed into a Left Bank cabaret, and couples will come dressed in the latest Paris fashions. Skits satirizing Paris life will be presented by the group.

Authentic music for the affair

Finalists are Dot Edinger, Gamma Phi Beta; Pat Eldridge, Delta Zeta; Alice Forman, Gamma Phi Beta; Alice Brown, Alpha Chi Omega; Naomi Weiss, Delta Zeta; Sally McHenry, Sigma Kappa; Patricia Rennels, Peggy Pfaff, and Fay Burt.

Judges are Frank DeMayo, John Rogers, Mr. E. W. Clements, fraternity adviser, Lee Duncan, and Marve Scarper. Judging will be immediately before the announcement and subsequent crowning.

Delta Sigma Phi president, John Rogers, will crown the winner. There will be two attendants selected from the remaining finalists.

Music for the dancing is by Marty Leaver, an alumni of the Hilgard chapter of DSP at the University of California.

Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Clements, Dean and Mrs. Stanley Benz and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Zavlaris.

Handling the arrangements are Herb Gregory, social chairman; Lee Duncan, activities chairman; and Doug Pendleton, publicity chairman.

TXi Observes First Birthday

Members of Beta Beta chapter of Theta Xi fraternity celebrated their first anniversary Sunday night when they gathered at Havenly Foods restaurant for a banquet dinner, according to John Griffin, publicity chairman.

Honored guest of the evening was Charles L. McGeehee, Theta Xi's national traveling secretary. Mr. McGeehee is at present making a tour of West coast Theta Xi chapters.

The banquet also climaxed the fraternity's pledge initiation. Pledges initiated were Rex Booth, Ed Carmick, Loyal Davis, John Griffin, Ken Lessler and Eugene Wortner.

In charge of the initiation was Roy Wager, assisted by Stan Tormey, Pasqual Lozarnho, Grattan Perry, Art Adams, George Sweet and Don Lee. Bill Crouser was pledge instructor.

Patrons for the affair were Lowell C. Pratt, associate professor of journalism, and Ed C. Glover, Engineering department lecturer.

Bob Billings, Theta Xi president, acted as host. Other officers present were Lawrence Brown, vice president; Wally McClymont, treasurer; Gene Secor, house manager; Bill Cartwright, steward; and Dan Peterson, social chairman.

will be provided by Al Ferguson and his band, who recently returned from a tour of France. Will Watkins, new SAE social chairman, is in charge of the party, and will be assisted by Rod Wright.

Quentin Smith, recently retired president, and Stu McCullough, present SAE president, will travel to the University of California at Davis to assist in the installation of the tenth California chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Faculty Wives Hold Valentine Dinner

San Jose State college faculty wives held a Valentine pot-luck dinner in the Student Union yesterday followed by an evening of entertainment.

Dr. Dwight Bentel, Journalism department head, showed a picture history of the college and pictures of recent storm damage to the area.

Group singing was led by the Rev. James Martin with accompaniment by Ingrid Andersson.

Mesdames Harrison McCreath and Edgar Willis were in charge of decorations for the affair, and dinner arrangements were made by Mrs. Theodore Balgooyen and Mrs. Lowell Pratt.

Sorority Reveals Pledge Officers

Gamma Phi Beta sorority has announced the election of new officers for the pledge class, according to Joan Ayers, pledge publicity chairman.

Officers are: Alice Forman, president; Judy Hale, vice president; Anne Borkman, treasurer; Sharon Winklebleck, recording secretary; Carole Valencia, corresponding secretary; Pat Valentine, house president; Lois Kirchner, scholarship chairman; Barbara Graub, activities chairman; Marilyn Miller, historian; Missy O'Neill, librarian; Gloria Dillon, song chairman; and Joan Ayers, publicity.

Kappa Alpha, Sigma Nu Stage 'Hillbilly Frolic'

A "Hillbilly Frolic" was the theme of the Kappa Alpha-Sigma Nu fraternity barn dance held Friday night at Hillsdale. Bales of hay served as decorations, and couples came dressed in hobo costumes.

"Hobos" and their dates danced to the music of the "Dixie Half Dozen," campus dixieland band. Social chairmen Ken Murray and Bob Bradley were in charge of the social affair, and Bob Klousner, Don Lewis, Bruce Summers, Lee Brandenburg and Norm Hirschman worked on the dance committee.

Kappa Alpha fraternity and Delta Zeta sorority recently held a joint party at the fraternity chapter house, according to Bill Codiga, publicity chairman.

The KA pledges presented a skit entitled "Blind Date." Fraternity "players" included Dean Coverton, Don Becker, Jack Montgomery, Ken Scannel, and Ron Jones. A parlor game called "Stop the Clock" was conducted by the Delta Zeta pledges. Those participating in the game were Joan Harlan, Diane Dyke, Dortha Betten-court, Barbara Yakin, Mary Ruth Morse, Elaine Wurtz, Dottie Moore, Claire Schmidt, Charlene Johnson, Shirley Briscoe, and Barbara Steinbaugh.

In charge of the affair were Madelene Sandoval, Delta Zeta social chairman, and Ken Murray, Kappa Alpha social chairman.

Wanted: Football Candidates .. Bob Bronzan Calls For Pigskin Help

By DICK DEGNON

Such famous names in Spartan football success as Walt McPherson, Ken Cook, Bob Cheim, Mary Johnson, Harley Dow, Junior Morgan, and Ilem Zetterman, are known to most local pigskin followers as tops in the autumn sport, but their prior experience had little to do with their local productivity on the gridiron.

This was reported by football coach Bob Bronzan this week in urging all able-bodied Spartan male students to report for spring football practice which opens Apr. 15 and runs for 20 days.

Recent football subsidization curtailment has placed Sparta in a difficult position, as scholarships to athletes have come to the cross roads.

"Some of the greatest football players in Spartan annals had little experience before they came out for football here," said Bronzan.

Ken Cook, former Spartan place kicking expert who booted six field goals on the Golden Raiders' unbeaten 1939 squad for an NCAA mark that still stands, had little football experience before enrolling here, Bronzan said.

Basketball Coach Walt McPherson was another discovery in football, as he ran, passed, and kicked Dud DeGroot's Spartan's to an 11-1 record in 1938.

Mary Johnson, who intercepted a pass and ran it back to set up the deciding touchdown and the NFL championship for the Los Angeles Rams last December, hadn't been slated for stardom from the looks of his prep record. It was the same Johnson who streaked 99 yards to pay-dirt in the 1949 San Jose State-St. Mary's game.

"I hope we can find another Harley Dow roaming around Sparta," said Bronzan. "Dow came to San Jose State as a basketball player from Los Angeles, and he never before had had a football suit on. Yet he was a star for three years and was all-league in 1949 and in 1950 played regular offensive guard for the San Francisco 49ers."

Other local stars who had little or no high school football background are Morgan and Cheim.

"There is no experience required for these non-paying jobs in April, but the benefits derived are unlimited," Bronzan said.

Stanford Mermen Sink Spartan Swimmers, 73-11

Scoring firsts in every event and shattering four pool records and tying another, Stanford University's powerful swim team downed San Jose State's mermen, 73-11, last night in the Spartan tank.

Coach Charley Walker's splashes were completely out-manned in every event. Bill Finch turned in the best Spartan performance of the night as he captured a second in diving. It was the only place position that the local swim squad could manage to take.

Spartan Fred Postal faded in the last 10 yards of the 50 meter and wound up third behind the Indians' Bob Chapman and Dick Wycoff.

The winners posted new pool standards in the 150 meter, which was won by Bert Holiday in 1:36.9; the 200 meter breast stroke, won by Ashley Jones in 2:23.9; the 440 meter, captured by Pete Cole in 4:45.0, and the 440 meter relay comprised of Thompson, Gaughran, Putnam, and Holiday. Jim Thompson tied the Spartan pool mark in the good time of 2:31.7.

KT's, Rally Group Will Fete Boxers

Kappa Tau fraternity, in conjunction with the Rally committee, will entertain the Spartan and Idaho boxing squads at the chapter house following the matches Friday night. A short talk will be delivered by Dee Portal, SJS boxing coach.

Gymnasts Win

Paced by Irwin Faria's 37 point effort, San Jose State's gymnastics team downed Stanford and Cal Poly in dual competition last night in the Men's gym.

The Olympic club garnered 63 points to take the four-way competition and San Jose State was second with 57, and Cal Poly and Stanford deadlocked for third place, each amassing 37½ points.

Faria copped four firsts and won the rope climb in 5.0 seconds.

CENTER GEORGE CLARK made a comeback from the sick-bay in scoring 17 points against USF Wednesday night.

Bulldog Five Meets Varsity Here Tuesday

The San Jose State Spartan cagers meet Fresno State here next Tuesday in the second meeting between the two teams this season. George Clark, who looked very healthy in scoring 17 points against USF Wednesday, and Lee Jensen, who scored 21 points in the first Spartan-Bulldog game, will lead the Spartans in the contest.

In independent standings, the Spartans moved up a notch to fourth place. The complete standings:

School	Won	Lost
St. Mary's	6	1
Santa Clara	4	2
USF	3	3
San Jose State	3	5
COP	2	5
S.F. State	1	3

Tennis Tourney

Semi-final and final matches in the all-college doubles tennis tourney will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Spartan City courts starting at 1:30.

The matches: Butch Krikorian and Don Gale vs. George Bill and Warren Van Dusen. Marty Hatfield and Don Straub vs. Jim Austin and Bob Phelps.

'Mural Playoffs

Intramural basketball playoffs will get underway Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. in the Men's gym when the Hamburgers meet the Collegians.

At 7:30 the highly-touted Slow Pokes face the Racketeers, who won the right to play in the finals by defeating the Hot Shots, 41-40, Wednesday night.

In the 8:30 game Kappa Alpha Plays Lambda Chi Alpha.

All games will be full court and will employ two referees, announced Bill Perry, intramural director.

Alameda Mat Meet

Wrestling Team Seeks Victory in Senior AAU

University of California, the Olympic club of San Francisco, and San Jose State, are expected to dominate team honors at the Senior AAU Wrestling championships to be held at the Alameda Naval Air station tomorrow. The wrestling will begin at 12 noon.

The Spartan mat squad have already captured the novice and junior crowns. Spartan mentor Ted Mumby rests his title hopes on his lighter men. Jonas Robledo, Bob Billings, Themio Condos, and Kay Toyota are local entrants in the 115 lb. division; George Lao and Joe Ross in the 123 lb. class; and Joe Tiago and Don Daley in the 137 lb. division.

Injuries to several key men have Mumby worried. John Jackson, surprise winner over Jim Dolle of Washington State recently, has a shoulder pointer and will be out of the lineup for at least a week. Ko Nagareda, who was counted on for Spartan points in the 137 lb. class, also will be missing from the lineup tomorrow.

Remainder of the Raider squad entered in the Senior AAU meet include Johnny Melendez, Lloyd Neutz and Gibby Mendosa, 147 lbs.; Frank Waxham and Joe Thornley, 160 lbs.; Jim Van Houten and Boyd Porch, 175 lbs.; Al Cadena, Bob Hamilton, Hal Bristow, and possibly Tom Strathy, 191 lbs.; and Jean Snyder, Bob Roebuck and John Bergen, heavyweights.

California, 19-15 dual meet winner over the Spartans in the season opener, pins its title hopes on Bentley Lyons, Pacific Coast 191 lb. titlist. The Olympic club squad is led by "Doc" Northrup, the man who seems to get better with age. Northrup is campaigning in the 147 lb. class.

Idaho Boxers Invade Sparta Tonight

Faces Don Camp

FRANKIE ECHEVARRIA, PCI featherweight champion, will meet Don Camp in the opening, and possibly the most action-packed bout of the evening. The Vandal defeated NCAA champion Neil Ofsthun last week.

Tough Assignment

A BIG ASSIGNMENT has been given Don Camp, 1951 Intermountain winner. The Spartan ace, who has not lost a bout this year, will meet Captain Frankie Echevarria in the feature bout of the night. Camp earned a draw with Ofsthun.

Spartans Risk Unbeaten String

Powerful Vandal Ringmen Threaten Portal's Streak

By LLOYD BROWN

Two undefeated boxing squads will clash tonight in what should be the outstanding collegiate match of the week when Idaho and San Jose State renew an old rivalry in Spartan gym. Action between the two powerhouses will begin at 8 o'clock.

The Spartans will be seeking their 25th consecutive dual match without defeat when they tangle with the Pacific Coast intercollegiate champions. The Vandals were the last team to defeat the Raiders on their home canvas, turning the trick in 1947. And they have the manpower to upset the high-riding Gold and White ringmen tonight.

Two of the men responsible for their victory in the PCI tournament last year, Frankie Echevarria and Larry Moyer, will be on hand to make the path to No. 25 a rocky one. Featherweight Echevarria, who last week outpointed NCAA title holder Neil Ofsthun at Moscow, Ida., to deal the Minnesota artist his first dual match defeat, will face Don Camp, 1951 Intermountain champion. Camp gained a draw with Ofsthun three days before Echevarria met him. In the SJS-Idaho dual match of 1951, which the Spartans won, 4½-3½ the Vandal decisioned Mac Martinez, 1950 NCAA champion.

The Northmen's other gifted gloveman, lightweight Moyer, has stepped down a weight division and will square off against Darrell Dukes in the 165 lb. bout. Moyer reached the semi-finals of the NCAA tourney last year, losing a close match to Chuck Spieser, who went on to take the title. Earlier this year the Idahoan decisioned Washington State's Gordy Gladson, who won the light-heavyweight crown in the Spokane Invitational tournament.

Chuck Adkins, NAAU champion in 1950, will see action in the 139 lb. encounter. The smooth working sophomore will meet Lynn "Sam" Nichols, also a winner in the Spokane Invitational tourney.

Jarring Jerry Stern, 147 lb. mittman, will return to action after having been forced to miss the last three meets because of illness. Stern, who TKO'd Michigan State's Herb Odom in his last outing, will meet Roy Johnson.

Assaults Adkins?

LYNN "SAM" NICHOLS, Idaho's hard-hitting light-welterweight, will square off against Chuck Adkins tonight. Nichols won the 139 lb. division of the Spokane Invitational tournament earlier this year.

WELTERWEIGHT DON ANDERSON will be Coach Frank Young's choice to stop Ed Heinrich, who has not lost a match in this, his first year of collegiate boxing, defeated Bill Mendosa in a close challenge match this week. Students Don't 'Flunk,' They Are 'Disqualified'

By MARY HALL

"Flunk" is a funny word. To most students "flunk" means just what it says—"Flunk!" But as far as the Admissions office is concerned, a student doesn't "flunk," he is "disqualified."

So it was that 2.76 per cent of the student body was disqualified last quarter, according to Miss Viola Palmer, admissions officer.

ROTC Juniors Must Attend Summer Camp

Junior classmen in Air Force ROTC must attend the six-week training camp this summer. Lt. Col. Howard E. Brown, assistant professor of air science and tactics, revealed yesterday. Freshmen, sophomores and seniors have been exempted from the summer camp program.

Previously, all Air Force ROTC students were required to attend summer camp between their junior and senior years. Present seniors were scheduled to go to camp last summer, but were exempted because of lack of housing facilities. Under a new Fourth Air Force order, they will be commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the Air Force reserve despite the fact they have not participated in summer training.

Snake, Turtle Share Renown

By WALT ROESSING

A pair of deadly Pacific rattlesnakes share the spotlight in the Natural Science building this week with two dime store turtles as the Animals of the Week.

The pair of venomous snakes are approximately 3½ feet in length.

This particular species is a small snake and doesn't carry too much venom. Dr. Ralph A. Smith, associate professor of zoology, reports that the Pacific rattlesnake is particularly dangerous to children.

He said, "There are many reported cases where mature individuals in good health have survived the bite of the local species without serious after effects. Some adult deaths have occurred however, from the local species."

To illustrate how close these rattlesnakes have come to invading the local campus he said that "in 1945 a specimen was picked up in the San Jose City Hall park on the steps of the USO center."

He stated the pair on display are fed rodents, usually rats.

Two common species of dime store turtles are also on display as the Animals of the Week.

Dr. Smith said these turtles are from the Gulf states. "Tens of thousands are shipped out of the area every year," he stated.

Men Continue Digging Work

Excavation is "well underway" on the Engineering building site, Joe Olson, job foreman, said yesterday.

The Eighth street gas line movement, which had been retarding progress, now is completed, Mr. Olson stated. He added that foundation work is presently being stressed, along with digging.

Another campus work project, in Room 10 of the Administration building, also received comment yesterday by Byron Bollinger, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

Final Tryouts For Revelries To Be Tonight

Revelries tryouts start their last lap tonight at 7 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium when chorus hopefuls audition for dancing parts.

"Anyone who thinks he can learn a few simple dance routines should come out," said Dave Woods, production director of the show. "If you're interested we can teach you the steps."

Women are reminded by the production staff to wear clothes suitable for dance routines.

Commenting on the turnout for acting and singing roles, Woods said, "We've got some top people in the cast, but there are still some openings for male students." Men who are interested may contact Woods for an interview, he said.

Revelries of '52, "Kiss Me Hello," is a modernized adaption of the Faust legend. It will open for a four-night stand starting May 7 in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Hays, Alice Hays, Harlow Lloyd, Donna Monroe, Richard Nelson, Carol Christensen, Carol Smith, Trinidad Ramirez.

3:30—Sonja Laird, James Eliot, Harold Russell, Bill Fryer, Barbara Turner, Lee Leidig, Doc Weaver, Guido Augusts, Ted Hehrenberg, Barbara Johnson, Francis Wilson.

Senior Earns Science Award

William Higuchi, senior chemistry major, has been awarded a $1260 teaching fellowship for the college of chemistry at the University of California for the 1952-53 school year. Dr. Benjamin Naylor, Chemistry department head, announced yesterday.

Dr. Naylor said that Higuchi, who graduates in June, will work towards his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees while at the Berkeley institution.

The department head stated that the fellowship winner has a very high scholastic average.
